

Report on recent lobbying trip to US Senate

Bruce DeCell, father in law of WTC victim Mark Petrocelli, and Joan Molinaro, mother of victim Carl Molinaro of the FDNY were among those 9/11 FSA family members who spent July 13 through 15 in Washington D.C. to lobby against two bills: S. 1645 AgJOBS Guest worker Amnesty and S.1545 The DREAM Act Student Amnesty.

Both of these bills give amnesty to illegal aliens. The DREAM Act also gives amnesty to the parents of illegal aliens who have graduated from US high schools and to their parents. It also gives instate reduction on college tuition to these illegals

Joan and Bruce asked them to consider instead sponsoring Senator Jeff Sessions (R-AL) bill S.1906, The Homeland Security Enhancement Act. This was introduced in Nov. of 2003 and would give state and local law enforcement agencies the authority to detain criminal illegal aliens within the course of their regular duties. It offers incentives for cooperation in the enforcement of federal immigration law by creating new grant programs for the purchase of equipment for housing and processing illegal aliens. The report of the Independent 9/11 Commission specifically states the need for the cooperation addressed by this bill.

The appointments were arranged by the staff of FAIR, and Paul Egan and Sandra Gunn of the FAIR staff attended the meetings.

Each of these meetings was important in that it conveyed to the Senators directly or their aides, that illegal immigration is not a victimless crime and that those of us who are victims are organizing to impose political costs on uncooperative Senators.

Most meetings with staffmembers did not result in clear cut statements of support or opposition. However, a few of the Senators and a few staffers were very clear these are of special interest.

Following is Joan's log of their meetings over three days, which she properly describes as: "Our Trip to Dizzy World, aka Washington D.C."

Listed first are appointments in which the Senator or an aide expressed a clear commitment either in favor of our position or against, or in a couple of cases showed disdain and contempt for the families. Standouts in terms of insensitivity, lack of common courtesy, their unacceptable treatment of our members were Republican Conrad Burns' aide, Democrat John Kerry's aide, and Democratic Senator Ron Wyden himself.

Both Bruce and Joan report that Sen. Lott was extremely sympathetic to their loss and the need to do something that will prevent future attacks.

1.Aides of Senator Conrad Burns (R-MT) Cosponsor of AgJOBS, S.1645. We met with Jennifer Owen, Chief of Agriculture and Jim McCray, General Counsel for the Senator.

Both staff members were listening at first, they became rude, condescending and defensive. Told us that we are going about lobbying the wrong way. Jim McCray said we should be writing letters to the Senators asking why the present immigration laws are not being enforced. Jennifer Owen said that we need a specific point, not both immigration and drivers licenses. Jennifer appeared to be controlling laughter by holding her hand over her mouth. She sarcastically remarked "didn't President Bush sign into law something about drivers licenses today?" She also said that "The Senator does not think this bill is as irresponsible as you do and that "we just have to disagree with you on this bill." "Sorry for your loss.") I felt like we were being mocked through the whole meeting.

2. Aides of Senator John Kerry's office (yes the dope running for President) (D-MA) Cosponsor of both AgJOBS S.1645 and Dream Act Amnesty S.1545 Met with Kate Joyce.

The Senators words " You will never get me to change my mind. I must do what my constituents want. We grow wonderful strawberries and we need the workers. That he brought 9/11 to the public forefront by asking for the 9/11 commission. Said that we should come and see the beautiful strawberry fields and then we would understand his support of the bill. Said it was better to control some, than none." I then jumped out of my chair and he jumped back. I said (yelled) to him, " So it's more important to protect the strawberries than it is the lives of your constituents? I then invited him to come to the cemetery and visit my son." He was unmoved and left the room.) I will never buy strawberries again!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Said the illegal aliens "do not get the benefits that people think they do." Said we need to find something that everyone agrees on, and that amnesty is not the answer. That Fair had taken out an ad that attacked the Senator." She seemed unaware that two members of Fair were sitting with us. She did listen to our concerns and was polite.)
