

Gadiel Statement at presentation of the film "Border" NYC June 28, 2007

A few days ago at press conference Pres. Bush finally said something truthful. Talking about the Bush-Kennedy Comprehensive Amnesty Bill he said:

QUOTE:

"You know, I've heard all the rhetoric – you've heard it, too – about how this is amnesty. Amnesty means that you've got to pay a price for having been here illegally, and this bill does that."

So for once the President was not lying.

In a way, this was a disappointment to me.

Since 1993, throughout the entire Clinton-Bush Administration, and in terms of not securing our borders and exposing us to terrorism and crime by aliens, they are one administration.

For these 14 years I've had a very simple standard way to know that these Presidents were lying: If their lips moved, they were lying.

This time, Pres. Bush's lips moved and he told the truth!

This means that there are no standards you can count on in Washington anymore.

I know this sounds like it's meant to be funny. But when you think about it, it isn't funny at all. 9/11 Families for a Secure America represents people whose family members were murdered by illegal aliens in the terrorist attacks of 9/11. We represent people whose loved ones were the victims of murder and other horrific individual street crimes committed by illegal aliens.

Our loved ones would be alive if those illegals had not had been able get into the US.

Those illegals COULD get in because of policies promoted by people like Ted Kennedy, John McCain, John Kyl, Bill Clinton, George Bush, Arlen Specter, Gov. Napolitano of Arizona.

But there are names that are less recognizable people like Frank Sharry of the National Immigration Forum. Tamara Jacoby of the Manhattan Institute. Jeanne Butterfield of the American Immigration Lawyers Ass'n, Thomas Donohue of the US Chamber of Commerce. Anthony Romero of the ACLU. The members of the Board of Directors of the Ford Foundation, Rockefeller Foundation

After five years of lobbying in Washington and about 20 state capitals, I'm tired of hearing the excuses and the buck passing. No one admits any guilt.

But the people in this room, the creator of this film, Chris Burgard, refuse to be silent about the role played by these amoral people in the murder of our loved ones.

These people, politicians, lawyers, businessmen, ethnic hustlers...they are guilty of encouraging murderers to come to our country. They bear much of the responsibility for the murder of our loved ones.
